Film Screening

Madan Sara

with Filmmaker Q&A

Sunday, May 18
2:00pm-4:00pm

"A film about the power of Black women in a global economy and their contributions that too often go unacknowledged" - Ms. Magazine

Join us for a screening of this award-winning documentary, followed by a discussion with Haitian filmmaker Etant Dupai. Madan Sara pays tribute to the women in Haiti who buy, distribute, and sell food and essentials in markets through the country. Despite the daunting obstacles of laboring in a sector that lacks corporate or state investment, the Madan Sara put their children through school, house their families, and pave the way for a better future.
